

The Deputies' Chamber and adjoining rooms

The Single Pillar Anteroom - The Former Deputies' Chamber - The Former Deputies' Anteroom -
- The Room in the Great Tower - The Studio in the Great Tower - The Middle Room -
- The Former Guardhall - The Justice Court Gallery

During the rebuilding of the Mazovian dukes' Great Hall in the years 1569 – 1572, a Council Chamber (for the Deputies) was established on the ground floor.

The Deputies' Chamber seated ca. 190 deputies along benches arranged around the Marshal's chair. The vaulting is ornamented with 32 coats-of-arms of estates and provinces of the old Republic.

Photo: Jan Morek and Wojciech Kryński