

The Tin-Roofed Palace - Exhibition of Oriental Rugs

The tapestry collection was gathered by the founder Teresa Sahakian (1915–2007), a Pole living in Belgium. The rugs have been on display in the Tin-Roofed Palace since 1990. The current exhibition Collection Revisited. Oriental Rugs from the Collection of the Teresa Sahakian Foundation was launched in 2008, after a general overhaul of the Palace. The objects on show represent four leading centres of tapestry art: Persia, Anatolia, Central Asia and – the largest set – Caucasus.

Grafika - INNO+NPD

1. Caucasian and Persian rugs inspired by European motifs
2. Rugs from Southern Caucasus (Karabagh)
- 3-4. Persian rugs
7. Turkish rugs
6. Collections of European art
8. Rugs from Central Caucasus (Ganja and Kazak)
- 9-10. Rugs from Eastern Caucasus (Shirvan, Kuba) and rugs from the South-East
11. Eastern embroideries, klims and mixed-technique textiles
12. Rugs from Central Asia