

The review of Turkish films

The review of Turkish films

It's a project accompanying the Polish-Turkish series of lectures Six centuries of Polish-Turkish relations. Besides lectures and debates on relations between Poland and Turkey in the fields of politics, economy, and culture, we would like to present to the audience a relatively unknown in Poland, contemporary Turkish cinema of the recent years.

The films will be screened in the Cinema Hall of the Royal Castle in Warsaw, from 18 November 2016 until 16 November 2017, once a month (on a chosen Friday evening). We will keep you informed about further film meetings via our website.

The entry is free of charge, however, due to limited number of places, prior registration is required: tel. + 48 (22) 35 55 170, wyklady@zamek-krolewski.pl

Archive of previous projections:

- 18 November 2016 – My Father and My Son
- 16 December 2016 – Pandora's Box
- 20 January 2017 – Love Likes Coincidences
- 10 February 2017 – Boats Out of Watermelon Rinds
- 10 March 2017 – Turkish Passport
- 7 April 2017 – Dot
- 19 May 2017 – Winter Sleep
- 9 June 2017 – The International
- 14 July 2017 – Almanya – Welcome to Germany
- 13 October 2017 – Mustang

Partners of the review:

Partners of the Castle:

Cooperation:

Media patronage:

- invitation_16.12.2016.pdf (789.9 KB) -